

Notice of withdrawal of application for a child support assessment

You can withdraw an application for assessment of child support at any time before the Child Support Registrar accepts the application.

You cannot withdraw an application once it has been accepted. However, you can end the assessment by completing the 'Notice to end assessment' form.

Please Note: If you receive a Family Assistance payment, you may not be able to withdraw or end your assessment.

-  You can complete this form over the phone. Simply call 131 272 between 8.30am and 4.45pm. Interpreters are available on 131 450. Customers are offered a receipt number at the end of each phone call with the Child Support Agency (CSA), as part of our customer service guarantee.

 This form is available online at www.csa.gov.au

Tick where applicable. Please write clearly in BLOCK LETTERS.

Where can I find more information?

If you need more information, or you would like help to complete this form, please phone us on 131 272. You can also read more about CSA and your options in our fact sheets available on the CSA website at www.csa.gov.au

What about customer privacy?

The information requested by CSA is needed for child support purposes and is required by child support law. We don't pass your personal information on to the other parent, unless this is required by law or necessary to make a decision that would affect the other parent. Some information may be passed to Centrelink, the Australian Taxation Office, the Family Assistance Office or the Social Security Appeals Tribunal. CSA may provide your contact details to people contracted by us to deliver services to separated parents, or to carry out research to help improve our services. You are not obliged to participate in any programs or research.

Our guidelines on privacy are in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988. For more information about how we treat your personal information, see the Guide on the CSA's website at www.csa.gov.au For more information about the Privacy Act and privacy generally, see the Privacy Commissioner's website at www.privacy.gov.au

What if I have a complaint?

Step One: Contact CSA and speak to your Customer Service Officer who will try to solve the problem.

Step Two: If you are not satisfied with the outcome, ask to speak to their manager.

Step Three: If you are still not satisfied, call CSA's Complaints Service on 132 919 and speak to a complaints officer.

If you feel that CSA has been unable to successfully resolve your complaint, you can escalate your concerns by contacting the Commonwealth Ombudsman.

How can I report suspected fraud?

If you have information about someone who is misusing government services, please phone the Australian Government Services Tip-off Line on 131 524. The tip-off line allows you to confidentially report fraud against Centrelink, Medicare, the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme, or Child Support Agency.

Call charges apply.
